Laura Horn

Everyone is predicting green will be the breakout color of 2021/2022. We for one have always loved every shade of green. From sage and grass greens to palettes tinged with grey and blue, green adds a refreshing color story to the home.

NEW ARTIST

LAURA HORN

Laura Horn is an Australian mixed media artist inspired by the imperfect and ever-changing beauty of nature. Part play and part meditation, her process begins with washes of watercolour, or acrylic and ink. Shapes, patterns and botanical motifs are then added using pens, pencils and pastels. Laura also helps others to connect with their creativity through her online classes, workshops and weekly podcast.

“I loved art as a child so I know that it is truly something that makes me happy. If I ever feel a bit out of sorts, I probably haven't painted in a while!”

pamela munger

Pamela Munger grew up in southern California and now calls rural western Colorado home. The big sky, mountains and seasons are a constant inspiration for her. "Painting is a lifeline, combining creativity, solitude and limitless possibilities. I'm all about experimentation with paint, surfaces and subject matter. I like to keep it simple, avoiding detail and not giving away the whole story."

Pamela started painting as a creative outlet for her work as an English teacher, which soon grew to a passion. She paints with acrylics, using brushes and palette knives. Pamela and her husband co-own Misty Mountain Hop Farm and she paints full time. If she isn't enjoying the outdoors, you'll find her at her easel.
