Color of the Year 2023

PANTONE®

Viva Magenta
18-1750

VIVA MAGENTA

Brave and fearless, Viva Magenta is Pantone's color for 2023.

A bold pinkish red, Viva Magenta is a “pulsating color whose exuberance promotes a joyous and optimistic celebration, writing a new narrative.” The last few years of Pantone colors have been safe and serene. Viva Magenta is anything but. Bold and bright, Viva Magenta is witty, rebellious and attention seeking.

neutral nature

Created in palettes of soft grays and greens and with touches of cream and earthy greens, these collections were designed for the home. Whether vintage inspired or painted in loose expressive brushstrokes, this look is all about showing the softer side of nature.

into the blue

When it comes to nature, the color blue is actually very rare. That's why it's so special and so sought after. It's also one of the most popular colors for the home so it's no wonder we love creating nature-inspired art that reflects this most uncommonly stunning color.

PASCHKE

Chris Paschke is an internationally accomplished artist and calligrapher. Her fascination with both Eastern and Western letterforms and art has been a lifelong study. She has studied with contemporary European master calligraphers in Belgium, Germany, Austria, Russia, and after an inspiring visit to China her work took on a strong Asian influence.

For decades her art has been inspired by traditional Chinese masters and Japanese Sumi-e painting, crossed with the edgy abstract expressionism of Kline, Pollock, Rothko, Gottlieb, Motherwell and Jasper Johns—thus redefining both mediums into her own contemporary style. Her art is abstractly interpretive as she uses assorted mediums including gesso, resist, watercolor, gouache, text, encaustic, collaged paper and accents of gold leaf to achieve her images.

Sue Schlabach lives and works in rural Vermont where she and her family are renovating an old brick house. She loves the act of making things, whether art, food, gardens, photographs or textiles. She studied painting and photography in the late 1980s, but found herself unable to get started in her twenties. A galvanizing moment came at Charleston, the English country home of painters Vanessa Bell and Duncan Grant. The house and its furnishings, all painted with simplicity and urgency, inspired her to get started and stop hesitating. She picked up a paintbrush and a camera and didn't look back. Having a daughter also pushed the making of art to the forefront. "Children make art without a critical filter," she says, "and watching that helped me turn off the critic and get to work." Sue works as a Creative Director and artist at Wild Apple. She makes art with ink, paint, paper, wood, old papers and canvas.

ESCALANTE

Omar Escalante's art style is influenced by pop art and Art Deco style. "I like to tell stories through my illustrations," he says "Especially when I travel, I like to look for the feeling of places and show it through my work." When he began to create artwork based on vintage travel posters, the theme became his passion. In 2017 he won a travel poster contest promoting travel to Finland, where he lives with family. Omar grew up in Guatemala and has lived in Finland since 2007. His multicultural family (where five different languages might be spoken on any given day) also inspires and influences him in making his art.
