*Yvette
St. Amant*

Yvette St. Amant, a French-Canadian born licensed and published artist, now living in the USA, is well known for producing a variation of unique styles with her diverse techniques. Through her online art courses and social media, she inspires and teaches thousands of aspiring artists. Drawing and painting since she was a toddler, she developed a strong interest in interior design by her teens. Raised on a lake surrounded by wilderness, she is deeply connected to nature and water. With a great love for the beach and tropics, her first globally published tropical florals collection in 2003 set the foundation for her professional artistic career. Her style is a fusion of culture, nature, and personality, strongly influenced by interior design, and trend forward colors.

JANELLE PENNER

*Janelle
Penner*

Janelle had found her inspiration from the natural beauty of the Pacific Northwest at an early age. Later in life, her inspiration came from every art form; from the early masters, to modern day graphics and advertising. Janelle is primarily self-taught, and has experimented with various mediums, though she usually works with combining traditional and digital arts. She currently lives and creates art in Germany.

Shirley Novak

Shirley Novak is wild about poppies. She loves to paint them, to grow them and to share them with her fellow gardeners. Her childhood passions were growing, drawing and painting flowers, which she continues to do at her Colorado studio. Shirley paints in oils using a wet-on-wet technique. She paints plein air whenever possible, either in her garden or on location when she travels.

Kent Youngstrom

"As an artist I enjoy the struggle as much as the end product." Kent Youngstrom is an artist with a beautifully varied background from interior design to graphics. His art is a journey combining a touch of faith, sentimental imagery and, every once and a while, a laugh, so that the viewer can experience the same emotional passage.

Wellington Studio

Tucked away on Canada's West Coast, Wellington Studio is more than just an art studio, it's a place buzzing with creativity. Known for its eclectic mix of art and techniques, Wellington Studio produces a variety of collections in today's most sought-after styles.

The studio isn't just about making art; it's about creating collections that make your space feel like you. Whether it's a tranquil nature scene that brings a touch of calm or a bold abstract that makes a statement, their art collections are designed to bring art home.

With a deep love for all things creative and colorful, Wellington is a place where different art forms mingle, where new ideas take shape, and where creativity is king; it's where art comes to life, constantly evolving and inspiring.

Silvia Vassileva

Silvia Vassileva pursued her love of art at the Academy of Fine Art in Bulgaria, where she earned both her bachelors and masters degrees. She spent six years painting and exhibiting her work in Japan before moving to the U.S. Silvia describes her style as very free and bold. She makes her paintings come alive by using contrast and unusual color palettes. Silvia's home studio, which she designed herself, is bright, contemporary and minimalist.

DEBORAH REVELL

Deborah Revell

Deborah Revell's artistic journey began when she traveled the world in her 20s along with a cherished Hasselblad camera, a gift from her great-uncle George. Settling in San Francisco she became a best-selling artist for Chronicle Books and her work was licensed across an array of products from stationery and wall art to soft furnishing. Now living with her family by the sea in Devon, UK, Deborah blends her photography with unique fresco-painted backgrounds, creating serene artworks inspired by her coastal surroundings, time spent in Vermont and as an artist in residence in The Loire Valley, France.
